NT Unit: A King Like No Other, Lesson 5

D6 Family Theme:
THE KING'S RETURN

Objectives:

Know: Jesus will come again to judge the world.

Think: Live with the assurance that Christ is coming soon, and let that motivate me to live for the Lord each day.

Do: Live ready and waiting for His return, doing God's will on earth.

READ: LISTEN TO GOD

Read Matthew 24:1-44. The Second Coming of Jesus, while somewhat confusing and often misunderstood, is a major theme of the Scriptures. It would benefit Christ-followers greatly to read about it, seek to understand it, and to live their lives in light of it.

PRAY: TALK TO GOD

We live for the Lord each day, ready for His return. Pray that you and your family will live each day fully serving and glorifying God, preparing for His return.

DO: WALK WITH GOD

Option 1: Jesus wants us to be ready for His return, so He told His disciples the signs of His coming. Jesus said people would try to deceive us, declaring they are the savior, and there will be wars, famine, and natural disasters. Although we know the signs of His return, no one knows when it will occur. Have your children come up with an event they are looking forward to. Help them in making a paper chain countdown for that event. (One paper loop for each day until the event.) Explain to them that we cannot make a countdown for when Jesus will come back. We always have to be ready.

Option 2: It is a popular thing today for news agencies to record and play a surprise return by a military service member or family member returning from overseas. If possible, find one of those videos on YouTube or something similar and play it for your family. After watching that brief video, ask the following questions. How does that video make you feel? Why? Does the element of surprise add to the effect of the video? How would you feel if you were in the position of the one being surprised? How would it feel to be in the place of the one doing the surprising?
